

HOLY WEEK

Date: 4.20.25 | Title: Jesus' Resurrection |
Scripture: Matthew 28:1-10; Mark 16:1-13; Luke 24:1-48; John 20-21

LEVELS OF BIBLICAL LEARNING

PRESCHOOL:

- God sent Jesus to earth because He loves and cares about us.
- Jesus always obeyed God.
- Jesus died on the cross and then came back to life.

YOUNGER KIDS (K5-2ND GRADE):

- God planned for Jesus to be the Savior from the beginning of time.
 - Jesus is the Messiah and the Savior.
 - God provided a plan for salvation because He loves me.
 - Jesus died to pay the penalty for all my sins- past, present and future.
 - Salvation is the beginning of a growing relationship with Jesus that lasts forever.
- Through salvation my sin is forgiven and the gift of eternal life with God begins.

OLDER KIDS (3RD-5TH GRADE):

- God planned for Jesus to be the Savior from the beginning of time and sent Jesus to earth at the perfect time.
- Jesus taught that He is the only way to God.
- People cannot save themselves, Jesus died to pay the penalty for our sins, redeeming and rescuing us from sin and death.
- God's salvation is eternal. Nothing can separate Christians from God's love.
- Jesus' crucifixion, burial, and resurrection were a necessary part of God's plan for the forgiveness of sin.

MEMORY VERSE

with our memory verse here!

"If you confess (declare) with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved."

Romans 10:9

BUSY BIN

As the kids arrive they will pick up a snack and a drink from the table. As the kids wait for their classmates to arrive, they can work on the cross painting activity provided in their classroom. Each classroom will have watercolor paint sets, cups for water and papers prepped with a cross for an Easter craft. There will also be a completed sample craft for the kids to use as an example.

INTRODUCTION TO THE LESSON

Put a long tape line down on the floor in an open area. Have the kids stand with one leg on each side of the line. Explain that the way they are standing will be called a “bridge.” Choose one side of the tape to be “in the tomb” and the other side of the tape to be “out of the tomb.” Leader, call out “in the tomb,” “out of the tomb,” or “bridge.” The children will jump with two feet to the side or position that is called. If a child jumps to the wrong side or position, he or she is out and must sit on the side. The leader continues calling out more quickly, and fewer people are in the game. The last child standing wins. Remind the children that Jesus’ death and resurrection provided a way for us to be with God!

BACKGROUND INFO FOR LEADERS

After Jesus' resurrection, He appears to a diverse group of witnesses in various places. A group of women come to the tomb near dawn, with Mary Magdalene possibly arriving first (Matt. 28:1; Mark 16:1-3; Luke 24:1-3; John 20:1). Mary and the other women are met by two young men, angels, one of whom acts as the spokesman and announces Jesus' resurrection (Matt. 28:2-7; Mark 16:4-7; Luke 24:2-7). The women leave the garden with a mixture of fear and joy, at first unwilling to say anything, but then resolving to report what has happened to the disciples (Matt. 28:8; Mark 16:8). Mary Magdalene may have dashed on ahead, telling Peter and John in advance of the arrival of the other women (John 20:1-2). Jesus meets the remaining women en route and confirms their commission to tell the disciples, along with His promise to meet them in Galilee. The women obey (Matt. 28:9-10; Luke 24:8-11). Peter and John, meanwhile, returned to the tomb after hearing Mary's report and discovered it to be empty (John 20:3-10; Luke 24:9-12). Mary Magdalene also returns to the tomb after Peter and John have left. She sees the angels and then Jesus, although she initially supposes him to be a gardener (John 20:11-18). Later that afternoon, Jesus appears to Cleopas and his unnamed companion on the road to Emmaus and, in a separate incident, to Simon Peter (Luke 24:13-35). That same Sunday evening, Jesus appears to ten of the disciples (the Twelve minus Judas and Thomas) behind locked doors in Jerusalem (Luke 24:36-43; John 20:19-23). A week later, he appears to the eleven disciples in the same setting, with Thomas present (John 20:24-29). Further appearances take place over a forty-day period, including in Galilee to the disciples and to over 500 seeing Him altogether (John 21; Acts 1:3; 1 Cor. 15:3-8). In a climactic commissioning in Galilee, Jesus instructs the disciples to spread the news throughout the world (Matt. 28:16-20). Perhaps only shortly thereafter, Jesus gives his parting instructions to await the coming Holy Spirit and ascends into heaven (Luke 24:44-53; Acts 1:4-11).

LOCATE THE SCRIPTURE & TELL THE STORY

Locate the scripture in the Bible: Matthew 28:1-10; Mark 16:1-13; Luke 24:1-48 and John 20-21

Remind your group that we are now studying the New Testament. The first four books, the gospels, tell the story of Jesus' time as a man on earth from the voice of different authors.

TELL

Retell the Bible Story:

Last week, we learned that even though Jesus never did anything wrong, He was sentenced to die like a criminal. He was beaten and crucified on a cross in our place. Jesus died the death we deserve because of our sins. All of this was part of God's perfect plan for salvation. The Friday and Saturday after Jesus' death seemed hopeless, but Sunday came. Today, we will learn about one of the most wonderful and amazing stories in all of the Bible, Jesus' Resurrection!

On the third day after Jesus' death, Mary Magdalene went to Jesus' tomb. It was still dark, and she saw that the large stone at the entrance had been moved away. Mary ran to Simon, Peter, and John. "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and I don't know where they have put Him!" she said.

Peter and John ran to the tomb. John looked inside and saw the linen cloths lying there. Then Peter went into the tomb and saw the linen clothes, too. The cloth that had been around Jesus' head was folded up. John believed that Jesus was alive.

Then Peter and John went back home.

Mary went back to the tomb and cried. When she looked inside, she saw two angels sitting there. They said to her, "Woman, why are you crying?"

Put the events in order, draw a comic strip, build it with blocks or playdough, act it out, etc...

HOLY WEEK

“Because they’ve taken away my Lord, and I don’t know where they’ve put Him,” she said. Then Mary turned around. Jesus stood in front of her, but she did not recognize Him.

Jesus said, “Woman, why are you crying? Who are you looking for?” Mary thought Jesus might be the gardener. She replied, “Sir, if you have taken Jesus away, tell me where you’ve put Him, and I will go get Him.” Jesus said, “Mary.”

Mary realized who He was and said, “Teacher!”

Jesus sent Mary to tell the other disciples that He was going back to the Father. Mary did what Jesus said and told the disciples, “I have seen the Lord!”

Meanwhile, some of the guards from Jesus’ tomb went into the city and told the religious leaders everything that had happened. The leaders got together and made a plan. They gave the soldiers a lot of money and told them to lie about what they saw.

After word spread that Jesus had risen, wicked men tried to lie about Jesus’ resurrection. Jesus later appeared to over 500 people after He was raised from the dead. Jesus died for our sins, but He is more powerful than death. Jesus rules over everything and came to save us and give us eternal life.

Re-tell the Bible Story: put events in order, draw a comic strip, build it with blocks or playdough, act it out, etc.

Share the GOSPEL: Jesus died on the cross for our sins but didn’t stay dead. God was pleased with Jesus’ sacrifice and raised Jesus from the dead on the third day to reign as King over all creation. Jesus provides salvation from sin and the promise of eternal life. The same miraculous power at work in the Son is still working within those who call upon His name for salvation from sin.

QUESTIONS TO REBUILD THE STORY

Storying Questions:

The days following Jesus' death must have been very difficult for the disciples and those who loved and followed Jesus. After His death, Jesus was placed into a tomb that was sealed with a large stone. Why did the chief priests and Pharisees ask Pilate to place a guard in front of Jesus' tomb? Read Matthew 27:63-64. The chief priests and Pharisees remembered that Jesus had said He would rise on the third day. They did not believe this would really happen, but they wanted to make sure Jesus' disciples didn't steal Jesus' body, pretending that Jesus had risen from the dead.

On the third day after Jesus died, Mary Magdalene went to His tomb and saw that the stone had been rolled away. Mary ran and told the disciples what she had seen. Peter and John raced to the tomb, saw that it was empty, and went back to their homes. Mary stayed weeping outside the tomb because she thought someone had taken Jesus' body. Who did Mary Magdalene see as she stood by the empty tomb? Read John 20:12-16. Mary first saw two angels and then she saw Jesus. Mary didn't recognize Jesus at first, but as soon as He spoke her name, she knew it was Him and that He was alive.

How can you tell others, like Mary did, that Jesus is alive and that He saves?

God's ways are very different from our ways. What are some surprising things about how Jesus came to earth to save us?

HOLY WEEK

Did Jesus' followers expect Him to rise from the dead? How do you know they didn't? Why should they have expected Him to rise?

When the women told the disciples that Jesus was alive, did they believe them? What convinced them?

How many people did Jesus appear to over 40 days? Why was it important for many people to see Jesus with their own eyes after He rose?

What does this story teach me about God or the gospel?

What does the story teach me about myself?

Are there any commands in this story to obey? How are they for God's glory and my good?

Are there any promises in this story to remember? How do they help me trust and love God?

How does this story help me live on mission?

PRAYER PROMPTS

Thank You, Lord, for Your perfect plan of salvation. Thank You that because of Jesus' death and resurrection, we have forgiveness from sin and gain eternal life with You. Help us share this good news with others. Amen.

IF TIME ALLOWS:

Practice naming the 4 Gospels: Matthew, Mark, Luke and John. Remind the kids that these books are in the NT and tell of Jesus' time on earth. Practice finding these books in the Bible.

Practice naming some of the disciples. During Wednesday night Bible study childcare, the kids learned a hokey song to remember all of the disciples. Play it a couple of times with your group and have them try to sing along.

You can find the song here.

MISSIONS EMPHASIS:

For the months of March and April we will collect money for the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering in the giving funnel at the top of the lobby. Encourage your group to bring change to drop in as you head to the worship center after SS.
