

HOLY WEEK

Date: 4.6.25 | Title: Jesus' Prayer and Arrest in the Garden of Gethsemane |
Scripture: Matthew 26:36-56; Mark 14:32-50; Luke 22:39-53 and John 18:1-11

LEVELS OF BIBLICAL LEARNING

PRESCHOOL:

- God sent Jesus to earth because He loves and cares about us.
- Jesus always obeyed God.

YOUNGER KIDS (K5-2ND GRADE):

- God planned for Jesus to be the Savior from the beginning of time.
- Jesus is the Messiah and the Savior.
- God provided a plan for salvation because He loves me.
- Salvation is the beginning of a growing relationship with Jesus that lasts forever.
Through salvation my sin is forgiven and the gift of eternal life with God begins.

OLDER KIDS (3RD-5TH GRADE):

- God planned for Jesus to be the Savior from the beginning of time and sent Jesus to earth at the perfect time.
- Jesus taught that He is the only way to God.
- People cannot save themselves, Jesus died to pay the penalty for our sins, redeeming and rescuing us from sin and death.
- God's salvation is eternal. Nothing can separate Christians from God's love.

MEMORY VERSE

BUSY BIN

As the kids arrive they will pick up a snack and a drink from the table. Each child will also get a packet of Easter Wiki Sticks to play with as their friends arrive.

INTRODUCTION TO THE LESSON

What is a difficult task you have been given? Why was it difficult? Did you complete it? Why or why not?

Today we will learn that Jesus spent time praying in a garden because He was about to face an extremely difficult time in His life.

BACKGROUND INFO FOR LEADERS

After Jesus and His disciples finish their meal in the upper room, they leave and head to the Mount of Olives, to a garden called Gethsemane, which means “oil press” (Mark 14:26). Jesus takes Peter, James, and John—His closest friends—deeper into the garden to pray. He tells them that He feels overwhelmed with sorrow because He knows He is about to suffer and die for the sins of the world (Mark 14:34).

Jesus then steps away by Himself to pray. He asks God if there is any way to avoid the suffering He is about to face (Mark 14:35-36a). Jesus is honest about His fears but still chooses to submit to God’s plan (Mark 14:36). Three times He returns to His disciples and finds them sleeping instead of praying. Eventually, Jesus tells them that the time has come for His betrayal and suffering to begin (Mark 14:41).

At that moment, Judas arrives with an armed crowd sent by the religious leaders. These leaders have wanted to arrest Jesus for a while but feared how the people would react (Mark 14:1-2). Judas, one of Jesus’ disciples, secretly left the meal earlier (John 13:27-30) to tell them where to find Jesus at a quiet time, away from the crowds. Judas signals to them by greeting Jesus with a kiss—something normal for a disciple to do to show respect to his teacher.

As the guards move in to arrest Jesus, Peter tries to defend Him by pulling out a sword and cutting off the right ear of Malchus, a servant of the high priest (John 18:10), but Jesus tells Peter to stop and heals the man’s ear (Luke 22:51). Jesus chooses to follow God’s plan, not fight back (John 18:11). When Jesus is arrested and tied up, all His disciples run away in fear (Mark 14:50).

Jesus’ betrayal and arrest are some of the saddest moments in the Bible. Even though He was completely innocent, He was abandoned by His closest friends and knew He was about to suffer and die. But Jesus was never surprised—He knew everything that was going to happen and willingly went to the cross to save us.

Jesus had already warned His disciples that He would be betrayed—not just by Judas but also by the others who would run away in fear. Yet, even knowing they would fail Him,

HOLY WEEK

Jesus forgave them and kept moving toward the cross. He remained faithful to God's plan and never lost trust in His Father.

This trust was clear in the garden. While Jesus prayed and poured His heart out to God, the disciples fell asleep instead of supporting Him. Even so, Jesus stayed committed to saving humanity.

Jesus knows all of our weaknesses, sins, and failures, yet He still loves and pursues us—just as He did with His disciples. Our faith in Jesus isn't about being perfect followers; it's about trusting in His perfect obedience to God. He knew our sins, yet He chose to save us anyway. Even when we don't know what the future holds, we can trust the One who never fails: Jesus.

LOCATE THE SCRIPTURE & TELL THE STORY

Locate the scripture in the Bible: Matthew 26:36-56; Mark 14:32-50; Luke 22:39-53 and John 18:1-11

Remind your group that we are now studying the New Testament. The first four books, the gospels, tell the story of Jesus' time as a man on earth from the voice of different authors.

TELL THE

Tell the story:

Jesus' disciples were His closest friends on earth. They traveled with Jesus, ate with Him, talked with Him, and listened to His teachings for three years. Today we will learn that when times got hard and Jesus faced an angry crowd who came to arrest Him, His disciples abandoned Him.

At the Last Supper, Jesus told His disciples that one of them- Judas Iscariot- would betray Him. Then Jesus said the disciples would abandon Him, just like the prophet Zechariah said.

Peter spoke up, "Everyone else may leave You, but I will never leave You!"

Jesus said, "I tell you the truth: Before the rooster crows, you will deny Me three times."

"I won't," Peter said. "I will follow You, even if I have to die with you."

Then Jesus went with His disciples to a garden called Gethsemane. He said to them, "Sit here while I go over there and pray." Jesus took three of His disciples into the garden, and Jesus became very sad and troubled. Jesus told the three disciples to stay there, and He went a little farther. Jesus fell facedown and prayed, "Father! If it is possible, spare Me from this. But I want to do Your plan."

Jesus came back and found the three disciples asleep. He asked Peter, “Couldn’t you stay awake with Me for one hour?” Jesus went away and prayed a second time. Then He found His disciples sleeping again. He said, “Are you still asleep? Get up, for it is almost time. Someone is going to betray Me.”

Jesus called His disciples to pray, and yet they chose to sleep. Jesus knew what was coming and He chose to pray to the Father for strength. He desired to do God’s will. Jesus is faithful and perfect. The disciples were unable to stay awake to pray, much less save themselves from sin.

Suddenly Judas arrived with a large crowd carrying swords and clubs. Judas kissed Jesus so the crowd would know which man was Jesus. The men grabbed Jesus and arrested Him. Peter pulled out his sword to fight the men, but Jesus told Peter to put away his sword. Jesus said, “Isn’t this what God planned all along?” Jesus’ followers ran away, but Peter stayed nearby to watch.

As the men who arrested Jesus led Him away, a servant saw Peter and asked, “Aren’t you one of Jesus’ disciples?” No, I’m not!” Peter said. Twice more as Peter watched what was happening to Jesus, someone asked him if he was a follower of Jesus. Peter lied. “No!” he said. “I don’t even know Him!”

Re-tell the Bible Story: put events in order, draw a comic strip, build it with blocks or playdough, act it out, etc.

Share the GOSPEL:

The first garden in the Bible was the Garden of Eden. It was perfect because God created it that way. But when Adam and Eve disobeyed God, sin entered the world and affected every human heart.

Before Jesus went to the cross, He prayed in another garden—the Garden of Gethsemane. This garden was not perfect like Eden. It was a place of sadness and sin. But unlike Adam and Eve, Jesus fully trusted God. He didn’t choose His own way—He followed God’s plan. Jesus is the better Adam because He came to fix what was broken by sin.

Jesus knew that dying on the cross was part of God’s plan to save people. Even though His friends betrayed Him, and He was arrested and put on trial, Jesus never turned away from God’s plan. He chose to go through with it so the world could be saved.

QUESTIONS TO REBUILD THE STORY

“Storying” Questions: As you ask these questions, have your 2nd-5th grade kids find the answers in the actual verses of scripture instead of recalling them from your re-telling of the story. We always want to encourage all of our kids to go directly to God’s Word over a commentary on or summary of scripture.

1. After the Passover meal, where did Jesus go and with who?

2. What did Jesus do in the Garden of Gethsemane?

3. Jesus was not guilty of any crimes or sin, but we are guilty before God. Why did He take our place? God’s plan all along was to send Jesus to die in our place. We can never live the perfect life like Jesus did. There is nothing we can do to earn forgiveness. Jesus took our place because it was the only way for sinners to be saved since He is the perfect sacrifice our sin requires.

4. Did anyone stay with Jesus when he was betrayed by Judas and arrested? What did His closest friends do? How do you think Jesus felt?

5. Jesus’ friends left Him and Judas betrayed Him. How did Jesus show that He loved them? Jesus loves sinners and came to earth to save sinners. Jesus showed that He loved His disciples by still going to the cross to die for their sins. Remember that we too have sinned against God and need to be forgiven like the disciples.

6. How can we trust God even when our circumstances are difficult? Because of what Jesus has done for us we have nothing to fear and we have a good future waiting for us. God is always with us and hears our prayers.

7. Which disciple was sure that even if the other disciples abandoned Jesus, he never would?

8. How many times did Jesus say Peter would deny Him? Jesus said Peter would deny Him three times. Peter said he was willing to die for Jesus and even pulled out his sword against the soldiers, but after Jesus said that His arrest was a part of God’s plan and He was taken to the high priest’s house, Peter hid and watched from a distance. Later, when people said that Peter was Jesus’ disciple, what did Peter say? How many times did he say this?

9. What did Jesus pray while He was in the garden? Jesus said He wanted to do God's plan. Jesus trusted God's plan and was willing to be arrested like a criminal even though He did nothing wrong. He trusted that even though God's plan was hard, it would result in salvation for sinners.

10. In what areas of your life have you turned your back on Jesus? How does this make you feel? What is the proper response when we've stepped away from Jesus?

11. What does this story teach me about God or the gospel?

12. What does the story teach me about myself?

13. Are there any commands in this story to obey? How are they for God's glory and my good?

14. Are there any promises in this story to remember? How do they help me trust and love God?

15. How does this story help me live on mission?

PRAYER PROMPTS

God, thank You for Your plan to save us from our sin. We praise Jesus for being obedient to Your plan and for laying down His life for us. Amen.

IF TIME ALLOWS:

Practice naming the 4 Gospels: Matthew, Mark, Luke and John. Remind the kids that these books are in the NT and tell of Jesus' time on earth. Practice finding these books in the Bible.

Practice naming some of the disciples. During Wednesday night Bible study childcare, the kids learned a hokey song to remember all of the disciples. Play it a couple of times with your group and have them try to sing along.

You can find the song here.

MISSIONS EMPHASIS:

For the months of March and April we will collect money for the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering in the giving funnel at the top of the lobby. Encourage your group to bring change to drop in as you head to the worship center after SS.

REVIEW UNIT VERSE:

Continue to use the Memory Verse Handout for fun ideas for practicing the memory verse for this unit.
