LEVELS OF BIBLICAL LEARNING

PRESCHOOL:

- God sent Jesus to earth because He loves and cares about us.
- Jesus always obeyed God.
- Jesus died on the cross and then came back to life.
- Jesus is in heaven with God.

YOUNGER KIDS (K5-2ND GRADE):

- God planned for Jesus to be the Savior from the beginning of time.
- Jesus is the Messiah and the Savior.
- God provided a plan for salvation because He loves me.
- Jesus died to pay the penalty for all my sins- past, present and future.
- Salvation is the beginning of a growing relationship with Jesus that lasts forever.
Through salvation my sin is forgiven and the gift of eternal life with God begins.
- Jesus ascended to heaven but promised He would return one day.

OLDER KIDS (3RD-5TH GRADE):

- God planned for Jesus to be the Savior from the beginning of time and sent Jesus to earth at the perfect time.
- Jesus taught that He is the only way to God.
- People cannot save themselves, Jesus died to pay the penalty for our sins, redeeming and rescuing us from sin and death.
- God's salvation is eternal. Nothing can separate Christians from God's love.
- Jesus' crucifixion, burial, and resurrection were a necessary part of God's plan for the forgiveness of sin.
- Jesus ascended to heaven but promised He would return one day.

MEMORY VERSE

"If you confess (declare) with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved."

Romans 10:9

HOLY WEEK

BUSY BIN

As the kids arrive they will pick up a snack, a drink and the two Great Commission Activity sheets to work on as their friends arrive.

INTRODUCTION TO THE LESSON

In your classroom there will be a directed drawing activity for you to walk your kids through. Tell the kids that they will be drawing a picture, but in order for it to turn out correctly they will need to listen to you and follow the instructions very carefully and accurately. Lead the kids through the drawing activity consistently reminding them to listen to you and follow the directions you give them. You can draw your own picture step by step alongside the kids so they will have a model to follow.

After the drawing, ask the kids the following question: How did you know how to draw such a great piece of art? How important was it to listen to my directions? How might things have turned out differently if you didn't listen and follow my directions? In our story today, we will learn that Jesus gave His disciples important instructions to follow before He went back to heaven.

HOLY WEEK

BACKGROUND INFO FOR LEADERS

After His resurrection, Jesus appeared to many people over a period of forty days. On one occasion, He appeared to a group of women in Jerusalem and instructed them to tell His eleven disciples (minus Judas) to meet Him in Galilee (Matthew 28:5-10).

A short time later, Jesus met the disciples on a mountain in Galilee. When they saw Him, some worshiped Him, while others were hesitant. There, Jesus gave them their mission—known as the Great Commission (Matthew 28:18-20).

In His resurrected state, Jesus had absolute authority over heaven and earth, affirming His deity. This authority was given to Him by the Father, showing that He remained subject to the Father's will. The central command of the Great Commission is to make disciples—calling people to commit to Jesus as their Master and Lord. This mission involves going to all nations, baptizing believers, and teaching them to follow His commands. Through this process, people would grow in faith, become sanctified, and live transformed, holy lives. Jesus' ministry in Israel was just the beginning of a global movement to share the gospel, reaching not only Jews but also Gentiles.

After appearing multiple times to His disciples, Jesus ascended into heaven (Luke 24:50-53; Acts 1:1-3, 9-11). His departure brought uncertainty for His followers, who had to trust that God's plan would unfold as Jesus had promised. The New Testament writers emphasize the importance of this event as both the conclusion of Jesus' earthly ministry and the beginning of His heavenly ministry.

*Jesus has now been exalted to “the right hand of God,” which is a symbol of ultimate power as Lord and Christ where He reigns in glory (Psalm 110:1; Acts 2:32-36; 5:30-31; Ephesians 1:20-21; Philippians 2:8-11; 1 Timothy 3:16; Hebrews 1:3; 2:9; 10:12; 12:2; 1 Peter 3:22; Revelation 1:12-18; 3:21)

*Jesus will pour out His Spirit to live within and empower His people (John 14:12; 16:4-7, 13; Acts 2:32-33)

*Jesus gives gifts to the church to equip us for ministry (Ephesians 4:7-13)

HOLY WEEK

As our faithful high priest, Jesus now intercedes for us (Romans 8:34; Hebrews 4:14; 6:19-20; 7:25; 8:1; 9:24)

Jesus is preparing a place for us (John 14:2)

HOLY WEEK

LOCATE THE SCRIPTURE & TELL THE STORY

Matthew 28:16-20; Mark 16:14-20; Luke 24:50-53; Acts 1:1-11

Remind your group that we are now studying the New Testament. The first four books, the gospels, tell the story of Jesus' time as a man on earth from the voice of different authors. Today part of our story will come from the 5th book of the New Testament, Acts.

TELL THE

Tell the story:

Jesus came to earth and lived for 33 years until He died on the cross. Jesus is fully God and fully man. He never sinned and was the perfect sacrifice, dying on the cross for our sins. On the third day, Jesus rose from the dead, just as He had said He would. Jesus lived, died, and rose again so that we can know God and be saved from our sin. After His resurrection, Jesus spent 40 days with His followers. Before Jesus returned to His Father, He gave His disciples the mission of helping others know Him. Today, we will learn how Jesus gave His followers instructions on what to do after He went back to heaven and how they would be empowered to be His witnesses.

Read directly from Scripture, use The Jesus Storybook Bible, The Biggest Story Bible, or the summary provided in the lesson

After Jesus died on the cross and was raised from the dead, He spent time with His disciples. At the end of His time on earth, Jesus gave His disciples important instructions. First, He told them not to leave the city of Jerusalem. Jesus said the disciples should wait there until God kept His promise to give them the Holy Spirit.

Re-Tell

The Bible
Story

Jesus reminded the disciples of John the Baptist. John had baptized people with water when they turned away from their sin and turned to God. Jesus said that in a few days, the disciples would be baptized too. Not with water, but with the Holy Spirit.

Put the events in order, draw a comic strip, build it with blocks or playdough, act it out, etc...

"Lord, are You giving the kingdom back to Isreal now?" the disciples asked. God was with His people- the Jews- but they looked weak. The Romans ruled over them. The Jewish people wanted to have power over other nations.

HOLY WEEK

Jesus did not say yes, but He did not say no. “The Father knows when the time is right,” He said. Then Jesus said, “But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come on you. You will be My witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.”

As Jesus’ witnesses, the disciples would tell people what they knew to be true. They would tell people the good news about Jesus in the city of Jerusalem, in the surrounding area of Judea and the nearby area of Samaria, and all over the world. The Holy Spirit would be with them to help them.

After Jesus said these things, He went up to heaven. The disciples watched Jesus until a cloud hid Him from their sight. Suddenly, two men appeared. The men were wearing white clothes. These men asked the disciples, “Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking up into heaven? This Jesus, who has been taken from you into heaven will come again. He will return in the same way that you have seen Him going into heaven.”

Then the disciples returned to Jerusalem, as Jesus had instructed them, to pray and wait

Re-tell the Bible Story: put events in order, draw a comic strip, build it with blocks or playdough, act it out, etc.

Share the GOSPEL:

Even though Jesus was about to return to heaven, He promised that His followers would not be alone. He would send the Holy Spirit to help them as they shared the gospel. Everyone who believes in Jesus receives His Spirit. Just as the Holy Spirit empowered the early disciples to spread the gospel and establish churches, He also helps us today. The Holy Spirit comforts us, reveals our sin, and guides us to live for God’s glory.

Jesus’ Great Commission connects to God’s earlier promise to Abraham in Genesis 12:3—that through him, all peoples on earth would be blessed. Now, after His death and resurrection, He commissions His followers to take His message of salvation to both Jews and Gentiles (Acts 26:23). This was Jesus’ purpose on earth—to establish the kingdom of God. Revelation 7:9 confirms this vision, describing God’s redeemed people as coming from “every nation, tribe, people, and language.”

HOLY WEEK

QUESTIONS TO REBUILD THE STORY

1. After Jesus ascended into heaven, the disciples saw two men in white robes. What did these men tell the disciples? (Acts 1:11)

2. What did the disciples do after Jesus went away?

They obeyed Jesus' instructions and went back to Jerusalem like Jesus told them. They prayed and waited for the Holy Spirit. In their own power, the disciples would not be able to complete the mission of sharing the good news of Jesus with others. The Holy Spirit would later empower them and open hearts so people could see their sin and recognize their need to be saved through Jesus.

3. Is the promise of the Holy Spirit for all believers?

Yes! (Eph. 1:13) The Bible teaches us that when we receive salvation through Jesus, we are sealed with the Holy Spirit.

4. How does today's story encourage us?

As we live for Jesus, we are called to share the gospel with others. Thankfully, Jesus doesn't expect for us to do this alone and gives us the Holy Spirit to help us follow His instructions. Not only do we have the Holy Spirit as our Helper, but we have the promise that Jesus will come again.

5. Is the instruction to go and tell others about Jesus for a select group of people or for all believers? Why?

Jesus commanded all believers to go and share the good news with other people. We can share the gospel wherever we are. Be bold in your faith and share how Jesus has changed your life.

6. Who should we share the gospel with? Make a list of a few people close to you who need to hear God's Good News. What are some ways you can share with them this week?

7. What role does the Holy Spirit play in the life of a believer?

The Holy Spirit is the third part of God and Jesus. He is our Comforter, Helper, and Teacher.

HOLY WEEK

- 8. What does this story teach me about God or the gospel?
- 9. What does the story teach me about myself?
- 10. Are there any commands in this story to obey? How are they for God's glory and my good?
- 11. Are there any promises in this story to remember? How do they help me trust and love God?
- 12. How does this story help me live on mission?

HOLY WEEK

PRAYER PROMPTS

Thank You Lord for Your promises. Thank You that You did not leave us alone, but have given us the Holy Spirit as our Helper. Help us to be faithful to share the good news with others.

IF TIME ALLOWS:

Practice naming the 4 Gospels: Matthew, Mark, Luke and John. Remind the kids that these books are in the NT and tell of Jesus' time on earth. Practice finding these books in the Bible.

Practice naming some of the disciples. During Wednesday night Bible study childcare, the kids learned a hokey song to remember all of the disciples. Play it a couple of times with your group and have them try to sing along.

You can find the song here.

MISSIONS EMPHASIS:

For the months of March and April we will collect money for the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering in the giving funnel at the top of the lobby. Encourage your group to bring change to drop in as you head to the worship center after Sunday School.
